

Timothy Janz

Curator of Greek Manuscripts, The Vatican Library

In Search of the Lost Scribes: A Numerical Approach to Greek Palaeography

mån 8 juni, 17:00 -19:00

William-Olssonsalen, Geovetenskapens hus,
Stockholms universitet, Frescati

In this lecture Dr Janz will describe his use of statistical analysis to plot the characteristic handwriting of known scribes in order to identify "lost" scribes.

ἑαυτοδία

Doctor Janz studied at Université Laval (Quebec City, Canada), the Sorbonne and Lincoln College, Oxford. He has received a phd from the Sorbonne for thesis work on the Septuagint (the Greek Bible), and another phd from Oxford for his work on the Sophoclean scholia. He is currently Curator of Greek manuscripts at the Vatican Library.

Κοσμήματα τῶν ἀγίων Scholia: What are they Good For? Reflections on a New Edition of the Sophocles Scholia

tis 9 juni, 10:15 -12:00

William-Olssonsalen, Geovetenskapens hus,
Stockholms universitet, Frescati

In this seminar, which is aimed at students and scholars knowledgeable in classical Greek, Dr Janz presents some reflections on his new edition of the Greek scholia on Sophocles.

Κοσμήματα

Ars Edendz

Institutionen för franska, italienska och klassiska språk

